CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

For the purpose of effecting uniformity in the administration of the privileges, honors, and benefits of the Order, the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts ordains the following articles as the Constitution of the Subordinate Lodges within its jurisdiction.

ARTICLE I.

This Lodge shall be constituted by at least five members including one qualified to preside at its meetings, and shall be hailed and entitled, — and shall possess the full powers and privileges of a Subordinate Lodge, holding a legal, unreclaimed, and valid charter, duly granted and formally presented by the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts.

ARTICLE II.

SESSIONS.

SECTION 1. Regular Sessions. — This Lodge shall hold one regular session in each week, on such evening and at such hours as may be specified in the By-Laws. The Lodge may open and close its sessions with prayer. All regular business shall be transacted in the Third Degree.

SECT. 2. Special Sessions. — Special sessions may be called by the Noble Grand, at his option; and he shall call such sessions on the written request of five or more members, at which no business shall be transacted, except that specified in the notice; and every member must be notified by either written or printed circulars.

SECT. 3. Quorum. — Five members of this Lodge, including one qualified to preside, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECT. 4. Terms. — The terms, of twenty-six weeks each, shall commence on the first sessions in January and July only; and all terms shall end on the day the succeeding ones commence.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. Elective Officers. — The elective officer of this Lodge shall consist of an N.G., V.G., Secretary (and if the By-Laws so provide, a Permanent Secretary, to serve twelve months), and a Treasurer, who shall serve a regular term each.

SECT. 2. Appointed Officers.— The appointed officers shall consist of a W., C., O.G., I.G., R.S.N.G., L.S. N.G., R.S.V.G., L.S.V.G., and R. and L.S.S., who shall serve a regular term each; and the N.G. may appoint, at his option, a Chaplain, or Chaplains, for a similar term.

SECT. 3. Qualification for Office. — Brothers to be eligible to the office of N.G. must have served a regular term as V.G.; and to be eligible to the office of V.G., must have served at least one term in some inferior office. All officers must have received the Third Degree, and the N.G. and V.G. must have received the Degree of Rebekah.

SECT. 4. Nomination of Officers. — Nominations for the elective offices may be made at either of the two meetings immediately preceding that of the elections.

SECT. 5. Election of Officers.— The elective officers of this Lodge shall be chosen separately, by a majority of written or printed ballots, at the last regular session in each term. Should no candidate receive a majority of the votes cast, the balloting shall be continued, and any qualified member who may receive a majority of the ballots shall be entitled to the office to which he is elected, whether previously nominated or not; and all ballots, including blanks, shall be counted.

Vacancies may be filled at any regular session, by the election of duly qualified brothers, as provided in Section 3 of this article; and officers so elected, and serving the residue of the term, shall be entitled to the full honors of the office to which they were elected.

SECT. 6. Installation.— The installation of the officers shall take place at the first regular session in each term or as soon thereafter as practicable.

SECT. 7. Absence or Resignation of Officers.— Any officer absenting himself for three successive meetings shall thereby forfeit his office; and the Lodge, by a two-thirds vote, may declare his chair vacant. It is hereby expressly provided that officers must serve a majority of the nights of a term, unless prevented by sickness, except when elected to fill a vacancy, to entitle them to the honors of such term; and should an officer resign at any time during the term for which he was installed, he shall not be entitled to the honors thereof. Any officer may, after impeachment and trial, be removed from his office for incompetency or official misconduct.

ARTICLE IV.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. Duties of Noble Grand. — It shall be the duty of the N.G. to preside in the Lodge, and enforce a due observance of the Constitution and Laws, and a proper respect for the Grand Lodge of the State of Massachusetts; to see that all officers of the Lodge and members of committees perform their respective duties, as enjoined by the several charges and these laws; to appoint all officers and committees not otherwise provided for; to give the casting vote on all matters or questions before the Lodge, but in the election of officers and members he shall be entitled to vote; to inspect and announce the result of all ballotings or other votes; to have charge of the charter, which he must always have in the Lodge while in session; to draw upon the Treasurer for all sums that have been voted by the Lodge, or that may be necessary to pay the benefits provided for by the By-Laws, and to perform such other duties as appertain to his office. He shall not make or second any motion, neither shall he take part in any debate, while in the chair.

SECT. 2. Duties of Vice Grand. — The V.G. shall assist the N.G. in presiding in the Lodge; he shall appoint his own Supporters, and have special charge of the door, under the N.G. In case of the absence of the N.G., he shall preside, and perform all other duties required by the charges and usages of the Order.

SECT. 3. Duties of the Secretary. — The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the Lodge proceedings; he shall write all communications, fill up all certificates and cards granted by the Lodge, issue all summonses or notices required, attest to all moneys ordered to be paid at regular meetings, and none other; he shall, within four weeks, notify the Scribe of any Encampment to which a member of the Lodge may belong of the granting of a withdrawal card or dismissal certificate, or of the suspension, expulsion, or reinstatement of any such member.

SECT. 4. Duties of Permanent Secretary. — It shall be the duty of the Permanent Secretary to keep just and true accounts between the Lodge and its members, enter all charges as they become due, and credit all amounts paid, giving his receipt for all moneys he may receive, and immediately pay the same to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor; he shall report to the N.G. the names of all members who are one year in arrears, and at the close of each term make out for the Grand Lodge a full return of the condition of the Lodge; he shall, at the close of the term, submit a statement of all moneys received and paid by him to the Treasurer, and deliver to his successor in office, or to any committee the Lodge may appoint, all books, papers, or other property appertaining to the office in his possession. In case no Permanent Secretary is elected and installed, the Secretary shall perform the duties specified or implied in this section.

SECT. 5. Duties of Treasurer. — The Treasurer shall receipt for all moneys paid to him as Lodge funds, keep a full and correct account of the receipts and expenditures, and shall limit his surplus funds to such amount as the By-Laws may specify, by paying the excess to such Trustees as the Lodge may elect; he shall pay all orders drawn on him by the N.G., attested by the Secretary, for such benefits as the By-Laws may provide and such bills as may be approved by the Finance Committee and ordered paid by the Lodge, and at the last meeting in the term (or oftener if the By-Laws so provide) submit a detailed report of his receipts and expenditures, and have his books written up for examination by the Finance Committee prior to the commencement of the succeeding term. He shall deliver all moneys, books, papers, etc., in his possession, belonging to the Lodge, to his successor in office, or to any committee whom the Lodge may specially authorize to receive them.

SECT. 6. Duties of the Warden. — The Warden shall superintend the ballotings, and shall canvass all votes on motions and resolutions when required by the N.G. so to do; he shall be the messenger of the Lodge; he shall have charge of the regalia; and shall perform such other duties as are prescribed in the charge of his office.

SECT. 7. The Conductor and other appointed Officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed for them by the general regulations and the charge of their respective offices.

ARTICLE V.

REPRESENTATIVES.

SECTION 1. All past grands in good standing in this Lodge are entitled to seats in the Grand Lodge, but are not privileged to take part in the proceedings, except to vote for the election of Grand Officers, unless duly elected Representatives.

SECT. 2. This Lodge may, at the last meeting in June annually, elect by ballot, from among its Past Grands in good standing, such of them as the Lodge may deem proper, to serve as Representatives for one year, commencing the second Thursday of the ensuing August, and this Lodge may at any time elect from among its qualified members such additional Representatives as it may be entitled to, to serve until the next annual election.

ARTICLE VI.

TRUSTEES.

SECTION 1. At the last regular session in December of each year there shall be elected, by a majority vote, three or more members of this Lodge, who shall be denominated "Trustees of the Funds of SILOAM Lodge, No. 2, I.O.O.F," who shall hold in trust all its funds, stocks, and securities. They shall deposit, exchange, or transfer the same, or any part thereof, when required so to do by a two-thirds vote of the Lodge. Said Trustees shall deposit in some reliable trust or banking company, or invest in such manner as the Lodge may direct, all moneys they may receive from the Treasurer, or otherwise, belonging to the Lodge; and whenever directed by a two-thirds vote, they shall withdraw so much of the amount so deposited or invested, as may be expressed in the vote, and pay the same immediately to the Treasurer, taking his receipt therefor. It is hereby made the duty of said Trustees, as soon as practicable after the deposit or investment of any funds, or the withdrawal of such deposits or investments of said funds, to render an account in writing, in order that the transaction may appear on the records; and they shall submit a detailed report of the financial condition of the Lodge at the close of each term. Either of said Trustees, for non-performance of duty, or for misconduct, may, after due trial, be removed from his office by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting.

SECT. 2. This Lodge may, if it shall so decide, elect its Trustees to serve for three years, so arranging that there shall be one of them elected each year.

ARTICLE VII.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Qualification. — No person shall be entitled to membership in this Lodge except free white males, of good moral character, who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and who believe in a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the universe.

Applicants must also have some respectable means of support, and be exempt from all infirmities which may prevent their gaining a livelihood.

The fee for admission, either by initiation or by deposit of card or dismissal certificate, must accompany the petition, and, should the application be rejected, the amount shall be returned. The fee for initiation shall not be less than ten dollars.

SECT. 2. Petitions. — Applications for membership in this Lodge, either by initiation, withdrawal card, or dismissal certificate, must be presented by a member in writing, and, including the proposition and report of the Investigating Committee, shall be in the following form:

} Investigating Committee.

[Should the Committee be satisfied that there are "Constitutional" objections to the petitioner, they should state what they are in their report, after the word "admitted."]

SECT. 3. Investigation, Report, and Ballot. — The application shall be recorded, and then be referred to an Investigating Committee of three members of this Lodge, who shall inquire as to the health, character, and standing of the petitioner, with whom at least one of the Committee shall have a personal interview, and make a faithful report at the next regular meeting, unless, by request of the Committee, the Lodge shall grant further time.

When the report shall have been submitted to the Lodge, action shall be deferred until the next regular session, or from time to time, until any question as to the fitness of the applicant may be determined. The candidate shall then be balloted for with ball ballots, and, if not more than two black balls appear against him, he shall be elected; but if three or more black balls appear, he shall be rejected; and, in all cases, not less than a quorum of the Lodge must have voted to constitute a legal ballot. In balloting, the ballot-box shall be placed on a stand, in the centre of the hall, in full view of the N.G.

SECT. 4. Declaring a Ballot void. — Should the Lodge elect a candidate to membership, and, prior to his admission, become satisfied that he is unworthy, it shall be competent for the Lodge to annul such election, and declare it void by a two-thirds vote of the members present, notice of such proposed action having been given one week previous, and the Lodge shall then proceed to a new ballot, as provided in Section 3 of this Article.

SECT. 5. Reconsideration of Ballot. — A reconsideration of a ballot is inadmissible, except when all the brothers who may have cast black balls against an applicant for membership voluntarily make a motion for a reconsideration of the ballot, and, in such case, the vote on the reconsideration shall be by ball ballots; and if all the votes be favorable, the reconsideration shall be had.

The application shall then lie upon the table until the next regular meeting, when another ballot shall be had with ball ballots; and if the same be unanimously in favor of the applicant, he shall thereby be elected; but if one or more black balls appear in either ballot the application shall be rejected; and in no instance shall more than one reconsideration in the same case be allowed; and provided, always, that such reconsideration shall be had within the four meeting nights next succeeding the rejection.

SECT. 6. Application by Withdrawal Card. — A brother of the Order, holding a withdrawal card from any Lodge, and desiring to become a member, shall present a petition therefor, as provided for other applicants by Section 2 of this article, which shall be disposed of in the manner specified in Section 3 of this article. A fee of not less than four dollars, and in addition, not less than two dollars for each degree he may have attained, must accompany the application: provided, however, that if the card was taken from this Lodge, he may be admitted for such sum, not less than two dollars, as the By-Laws may provide.

An ancient Odd Fellow, or one whose withdrawal card is out of date, or which may have been lost, may be admitted in the manner provided for other applicants, and for a fee of not less than four dollars, and not less than two dollars, in addition, for each degree attained.

SECT. 7. Application by Dismissal Certificate. — Applications for membership by the deposit of a dismissal certificate may be received, provided such certificate was not granted by this Lodge, and shall be subject to the same conditions as are provided in the previous section, for applications by withdrawal card.

SECT. 8. Non-Residents. — No person residing in any other town or city where a Lodge or Lodges exist shall be initiated in this Lodge, without an official permit from a Lodge in the town or city where he resides, or from the Board of Grand Officers.

SECT. 9. Notice of Rejection. — When a candidate has been rejected for immoral conduct, impaired health, or other constitutional reasons duly specified and recorded, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to all the Lodges in the same county, and within ten miles of this Lodge; and a person so rejected shall not be again balloted for in this or any other Lodge for six months thereafter.

SECT. 10. Reinstatement within one year. — Any member of this Lodge who may have been suspended for non-payment of dues, may, within one year after suspension, be reinstated on paying the amount of one year's dues, and complying with the provisions of Section 2 of this article prescribed for other applicants. The application shall be disposed of as expressed in Section 3 of this article, except that a majority only of ball ballots, in his favor, shall be required to reinstate him.

SECT. 11. Reinstatement after one year. — After one year from date of suspension, a member of this Lodge, suspended for non-payment of dues, may be reinstated upon the payment of the fee charged for an initiate of the same age, or such less sum as the By-Laws may prescribe.

Applications, accompanied with the requisite fee, must be made in the form prescribed for other applicants, and shall be disposed of as provided in Section 3 of this article.

Should an application for reinstatement, under this or any other section or article in this Constitution, be rejected, the funds paid in by the applicant, on his petition, shall be returned to him, although he may be indebted to the Lodge in that amount.

SECT. 12. Reinstatement of Expelled Members. — A member who has been expelled, and desires to be reinstated, shall present his petition therefor, as provided in Section 2 of this article, which shall be referred to a Committee of three, as in the case of other applicants, who shall inform themselves as to the present character and circumstances of the applicant, and report as soon as practicable. On the reception of the report a ball ballot shall be had on the question, "Shall application be made to the Grand Lodge for permission to reinstate the applicant?" And, if two-thirds of the ballots be in the affirmative, such application shall be made. At the next regular meeting after the receipt of permission from the Grand Lodge to reinstate the brother a ballot shall be taken on the application for reinstatement; and, if not more than two black balls appear against him, the brother shall be reinstated.

SECT. 13. Withdrawing Application. — An application for membership may be withdrawn, without the permission of the Lodge, before the report of the Committee thereon is read to the Lodge, but not afterward.

SECT. 14. Non-Appearance of Applicant. — A candidate failing to present himself for initiation or membership for three months after being notified, said election shall be null and void, unless by unanimous vote the Lodge shall determine otherwise.

SECT. 15. Commencement of Membership. — Membership in this Lodge shall commence when the applicant signs the Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII.

DEGREES.

SECTION 1. Eligibility. — Brothers who have been in membership one week shall be eligible for degrees; but not more than two degrees shall be conferred on a brother at the same meeting, except in cases of urgent necessity, nor then without a written dispensation from the Grand Master or the District Deputy Grand Master.

SECT. 2. Fee. — The fee for degrees in this Lodge shall not be less than three dollars each.

SECT. 3. Application and Ballot. — Application for degrees shall be made in the Lodge when open in the third degree, and shall be balloted for in the same manner as prescribed for membership, and on the same evening when application is made.

ARTICLE IX.

DUES.

SECTION 1. Dues. — The regular dues to this Lodge shall not be at a less rate than four dollars per year, the amount to be specified in the By-Laws.

SECT. 2. Penalty for Non-Payment. — Any member of this Lodge, who is in arrears for weekly or funeral dues more than thirteen weeks, is not entitled to the term password, or to vote in the Lodge, but is a contributing member until suspended or expelled, and shall be entitled to visit his own Lodge. He shall not, however, be entitled to benefits until he shall have paid in full all dues and fines, weekly and funeral, that have accrued against him up to the date of payment, if the By-Laws of the Lodge shall so provide; nor then until the expiration of such time thereafter as may also by the laws be provided as a penalty. The Lodge shall not refuse to receive in full, or in part, the dues of a member prior to his suspension, and no member shall be suspended for non-payment of dues unless at the time of his suspension he shall be indebted to the Lodge for one year's dues; but when a member shall be liable to suspension, by being in arrears for dues for the space of one year, he shall be notified at least four weeks previous to action being taken, of his indebtedness and the pendency of such action, and the Secretary shall, on the expiration of the notice, and the arrearages being still unpaid, report the same to the Noble Grand in open Lodge; and, unless the Lodge shall otherwise determine, such member shall be suspended by a majority ballot, and a record thereof shall be made upon the minutes. The ballot whereby a member has been suspended for non-payment of dues shall not be reconsidered.

ARTICLE X.

BENEFITS.

SECTION 1. Weekly Benefits. — This Lodge shall pay benefits to any of its members who, in consequence of sickness or accident, not the result of their own immoral conduct, and who are not indebted to the Lodge for the amount of more than thirteen weeks' dues, nor otherwise disqualified from receiving the same, in such amount per week as may be fixed in the By-Laws.

SECT. 2. Funeral Expenses. — In case of the death of a member of this Lodge, qualified as provided in Section 1 of this article, there shall be paid from the funds of the Lodge such a sum, not less than thirty dollars, as may be specified in the By-Laws, which shall be used for defraying the funeral expenses; or, if said expenses shall be paid by any relative or friend of the deceased, then the said amount shall be paid to such relative or friend.

ARTICLE XI.

CARDS.

SECTION 1. Visiting Cards. — Any member of this Lodge, on making application for a visiting card, either personally or in writing, shall be entitled to the same, if no legal disqualifications exist at the time of the application, upon paying his dues up to the time for which it is granted, including such fee for the card as may be specified by the By-Laws.

SECT. 2. Withdrawal Cards. — Any member of this Lodge desiring a withdrawal card shall make application therefor either personally or in writing; and if free from all charges, and not indebted to the Lodge, the Lodge shall, at the same or at the next regular meeting after such card is applied for, proceed to vote on the application by ball ballot; and if a majority of the ballots be favorable, or white, the card shall be granted.

The vote granting a withdrawal card shall neither be reconsidered nor rescinded.

SECT. 3. Reinstatement for Withdrawal Card. — A member of this Lodge who has been suspended for non-payment of dues, and who shall make application for reinstatement and a withdrawal card, may be reinstated and granted a final card at any time within five years from the date of suspension, upon the payment of one year's dues and the usual price of the card. Should the Lodge refuse to reinstate the applicant, he shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall, upon proper application, grant a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

SECT. 4. Dismissal Certificate. — A member of this Lodge suspended for non-payment of dues, after five years' suspension, wishing to join a Lodge in this jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall grant, upon proper application, a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

A member of this Lodge who may be suspended for non-payment of dues, and desires to regain membership in another Jurisdiction, shall be entitled to receive, and the Lodge shall, upon proper application, grant a dismissal certificate upon the receipt of one dollar.

Dismissal certificates may be received on application for membership in any Lodge excepting that granting the same; but the privilege of visiting a Lodge on a dismissal certificate is hereby denied.

ARTICLE XII.

PENALTIES AND TRIAL.

SECTION 1. Any member who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against these Articles or the By-Laws, shall be subject to be fined, reprimanded, suspended, or expelled as the By-Laws may direct or the Lodge determine. But no member shall be liable to more than one of the penalties named in this section.

SECT. 2. Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving either of the penalties named in Section 1 of this article; but shall not be put on trial unless charges, duly specifying his offence, be submitted to the Lodge, in writing, by one or more brothers of the Order.

SECT. 3. When charges have been preferred against a brother in proper manner, they shall be referred to a special committee of five members, who shall, if possible, be chosen from among the peers of the implicated brother; and they shall, with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties, and examine the matter in question. Should the committee be satisfied that the charge is sustained, they shall, with their report, submit a motion to the Lodge for the infliction of such penalty as, in their judgment, the offence demands; and, if not involving suspension or expulsion, the adoption of the report shall be final, unless an appeal be taken.

SECT. 4. When a motion for the suspension or expulsion of a brother shall have been submitted in due form, it shall be the special order of business for the second regular session thereafter; and the accused shall be summoned to be in attendance at the Lodge on the time when it may have been determined to consider the question; at which time, whether the implicated brother be present or not, the Lodge may proceed to consider and determine it. Two-thirds of the members present voting in favor of the motion by ball ballot, it shall be carried; and the Lodge shall be fully competent, while such motion is under consideration, to vary the penalty from the original motion.

SECT. 5. When the decision of a committee appointed under Section 3 shall not be satisfactory to all parties, either of those interested shall have the privilege of appeal to the Lodge; and, at the time appointed for trying the appeal, the committee shall present to the Lodge, in writing, the grounds on which their decision was founded, and the parties shall have the privilege of being heard before the Lodge, and the Lodge shall determine the correctness of the decision of the committee by a majority of the votes present, and any brother shall be entitled to appeal from the decision of the Lodge against him, in accordance with the provisions of Article XIII., provided informality or want of fairness be shown on the former trial; and, on the command of the Grand Lodge, the brother may be tried anew for the same offence.

SECT. 6. Any brother having been suspended or expelled, notice thereof shall be sent to the Grand Secretary; and a brother who has been legally expelled shall not be again admitted to membership without the consent of the Grand Lodge.

SECT. 7. Any member of the Order who shall have painted upon his sign any of the emblems of the Order, or who shall otherwise exhibit them on the same, or have them printed or engraved upon his business card, or expose them in any public place as a sign, may be admonished, suspended, or expelled, agreeably to a vote of the Lodge.

ARTICLE XIII.

APPEALS.

SECTION 1. Appeals. — Any brother who may desire to appeal from the final action of a Lodge upon any question affecting the dues, benefits, or membership of a brother, shall, within one month from the date of such final action, over his own or his attorney's signature, give written notice to the Lodge of his intention to appeal from such action, and shall specify in such notice whether he will appeal to the District Deputy Grand Master, to the Grand Master, or to the Grand Lodge, which notice shall be entered in full upon the records of the Lodge, and then placed on file.

SECT. 2. — The appellant shall, within two weeks from the meeting at which such notice of appeal is given, over his own or his attorney's signature, present to the Lodge from which the appeal is taken his appeal in duplicate, stating the action appealed from and the grounds of his appeal, which shall be entered in full upon the records of the Lodge, and one copy thereof placed on file. The second copy of said appeal, together with a copy of the records of the Lodge, and all papers referring to the appeal, shall be authenticated by the seal of the Lodge and the signatures of the Noble Grand and Secretary, and by them forwarded, within two weeks from the date of its receipt, to the Grand Lodge or officer appealed to.

SECT. 3. — An appeal from the decision of the District Deputy Grand Master to the Grand Master or to the Grand Lodge, or from the Grand Master to the Grand Lodge, may be taken within two weeks from the date of their respective decisions, but if not taken within said time such decisions shall be final.

SECT. 4. — If the appeal is taken to the Grand Lodge the Grand Secretary shall immediately, upon the receipt of the papers thereon, forward the same to the Committee on Appeals, and upon request of said committee he shall notify the Lodge and the appellant of the time and place where said appeal will be heard, and such notice shall be sent at least two weeks before the time of said hearing. The committee shall hear the evidence produced by appellant and said Lodge, and report their decision to the Grand Lodge. Should either party neglect or refuse to appear at said hearing, the Committee on Appeals may consider the appeal, and no evidence shall be allowed to be presented to the Grand Lodge by any party so neglecting or refusing to appear before the said Committee on Appeals.

SECT. 5. — All appeals from Lodge actions, other than specified in the preceding sections, must be made on or before the regular meeting of the Lodge next following that at which the action was taken.

ARTICLE XIV.

RETURNS AND FORFEITURE OF CHARTER.

SECTION 1. Returns. — It shall be the duty of the officers to prepare and forward to the Grand Lodge, previous to the installation of their successors, a report of the work for the term, in accordance with the blanks furnished by the Grand Lodge, and authenticate the same by their signatures and the seal of the Lodge. Refusing or neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section before the 20th of January and July of each year will subject the Lodge to a fine of five dollars.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The N.G., while presiding, shall state every question coming before the Lodge, and shall ask: "Is the Lodge ready for the question?" Should no brother rise to speak, the N.G. shall then proceed to put the question, and after he has risen no member shall be permitted to speak upon it. He shall announce the decision of the Lodge on all subjects. He shall not speak on any subject from the Chair, except when his decision is appealed from, when the question shall be put thus: "Will the Lodge sustain the Chair in its decision?" This question may be debated by the brothers, and also by the N.G.

2. No question shall be stated unless moved by two members, who shall rise, address the N.G., and be recognized by him, nor be open for consideration until stated by the N.G.; and when a question is before the Lodge, no motion shall be received unless "to lay on the table"; "the previous question"; "to postpone"; "to refer"; or "to amend"; and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are here arranged. The first two shall be decided without debate. (These motions shall not be applied to such other, except that a motion "to postpone" or "to refer" may be amended by the substitution of a different time or a different committee.)

3. When the previous question is called for by two members, it shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" If carried, all amendments not already proposed shall be precluded, and the question taken without further debate, — first on the pending amendments, if any, and then on the main question.

4. When a brother intends to speak on a question, he shall rise, address the N.G., and confine his remarks to the question before the Lodge. Should more than one brother rise to speak at the same time, the N.G. shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

5. No member of the Lodge shall have the privilege of speaking more than twice on any question under consideration, unless by permission of the N.G. or the Lodge.

6. The N.G. or any member may call a brother to order while speaking, when the debate shall be suspended, and no brother allowed to speak until the point of order be determined, unless to appeal from the decision of the Chair, when he may use the words following, and no other: "N.G., I respectfully appeal from the Chair to the Lodge;" whereupon the Lodge, without debate, shall proceed to vote upon the question: "Will the Lodge sustain the Chair in its decision?"

7. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum or number, and on the longest time proposed.

8. Any member may call for the division of a question when the sense will admit of it.

9. Any five members calling for the yeas and nays, they shall be ordered by the N.G., and recorded on the minutes.

10. After any question, except one of indefinite postponement, has been decided, any two members who voted in the majority may at the same or the next regular meeting move for the reconsideration thereof; but no discussion of the main question shall be allowed unless reconsidered.
